GERRY comes home from school
At five past four.
Grandpa always waits
By the big blue door.

He says:
'Tell me what you have to say.
Tell me what is new today.'

On Monday Gerry says:
'There's a giraffe
Having a bath
On the path.'

Grandpa says:
'A giraffe on the path?
That's not true,
That cannot be.
There's no giraffe,
You're fooling me.'

On Friday Gerry says:
'There's a bear
With dirty hair
On the stairs!'

Grandpa says:
'A bear on the stairs?
That's not true,
That cannot be.
There's no bear,

And now, on Friday
A bear on the stairs.

Hee hee hee, you can't fool me.
That's what I call make believe.'

Gerry says:
 'I'm not fooling.
 Not this time.
 I'm scared of that bear
 And I'm really not lying.'

Grandpa says:

'Do you hear that great big roar?

Is that Miss McKay from the second floor?'

Gerry says:

'No. That isn't a woman

Or even a man.

It's a bear on the stairs.

Let's get out if we can.'

The firemen come and then the police.
 There's Mrs Baker and her nosey niece.
 They want to look and have a stare
 At the bear on the stairs with dirty hair.

Now there's a zookeeper on his bike,
 And there's another – called Mike.
 He's got a bag on a large brown trolley.
 He takes out an enormous pink lolly!

And eats the lolly – one, two, three!

'Sorry, sorry,' the zookeepers say.
'It's bath time at the zoo today.
This bear sees soap and she runs away,
But come and visit another day.'

Gerry says:
'You see, Grandpa,
I know it's a surprise,
But I can tell the truth
And I don't always lie.'

Grandpa says:
'But it's not good if you say
One or two lies every day.
Here's an idea – take a good look –
When you talk, tell the truth
And write your stories in this book.'

Family and Friends

Family and Friends readers have been carefully graded to match the syllabus of the Family and Friends series and provide extra reading practice. They can either be used in the classroom or to support learning at home.

Illustrated glossary items on each page help children to understand the text, while integrated comprehension questions and puzzles provide a way of checking their understanding and help develop their broader literacy skills.

There are four titles at each level consisting of a mixture of classic and modern titles.

The titles for Level 2 are:

- The Town Mouse and the Country Mouse 978019480256 7
- The Shoemaker and the Elves 978019480257 4
- The Bear on the Stairs 978019480259 8
- The Camping Trip 978019480258 1
